

Start Time: 10:30 AM

End Time: 1:00 PM

- Total duration: 150 minutes (2.5 hours)
- Guided tour time: 100 minutes
- Walking time: 23 minutes
- Break time: time stay in the restaurant
- Time in each restaurants already includes walking time

Order	Time	Location	Key points	Content Design
1	10 mins	Yanchengpu MRT Station - Exit 1	1. Check in 2. Short introduce	1. The tour guide introduce themselves 2. Tourists also introduce themselves: name + nationality + why they choose to join this food tour 3. Introduction of Like it Formosa: "Formosa" is another name for Taiwan. The brand name reflects the wish that foreign visitors will fall in love with Taiwan through our guided tours. 4. Introduction of Kaohsiung Food Tour and today's itinerary: The Kaohsiung food tour will take tourists on a walking journey to taste the authentic Kaohsiung foods while learning some stories behind it. The tour last about 2 hours 30 minutes and included 5 differents stop.

2	30 mins	Yama Ichi (山壹旗魚食製所)	1. Dual function (morning and afternoon) 2. Traditional handmade process	1. After gather at Yanchengpu MRT Station, first stop is Yama Ichi (山壹旗魚食製所). 2. Yama Ichi is a historic eatery located in Kaohsiung Yancheng First Public Market, specializing in milkfish snacks and tempura. This store has been a family-run business eatery for 70 years, showing long-standing representative of Kaohsiung's traditional fish market culture. 3. In the morning (from 7:00 AM to 12:00 PM), Yama Ichi functions as a fish stall, selling fresh fish tastes, minced milkfish, and other raw seafood products. In the afternoon, it transforms into a small diner that serves freshly fried tempura, assorted fried snacks, and classic fish dishes. 4. Yama Ichi's signature process includes manual deboning, pounding, seasoning, and frying, all done by hand to preserve the authentic texture and flavor of milkfish. 5. The Like it Formosa pre-ordered menu (NT$88 per box, NT$ 44 per person): one box of tempura includes 3 differents kind of fishcake for 2 people
3	30 mins	Duck Zhen (鴨肉珍)	1. History 2. Signature Dishes & Flavor 3. Michelin Recognition	1. Duck Zhen is known as one of Kaohsiung's most iconic smoked duck restaurants that has been operating for over 60 years, serving generations of loyal customers. 2. Duck Zhen most famous is tender,

			4. Ambience & Operation Style	aromatic smoked duck, often enjoyed with rice, vermicelli, or assorted side dishes, gained international attention after being listed in the Michelin Guide (Bib Gourmand) for Kaohsiung, a recognition that celebrates its authentic taste and long-standing culinary tradition. 3. The shop retains a humble, rustic charm, with limited seating and a focus on craftsmanship over expansion. The atmosphere is lively yet unpretentious, embodying the down-to-earth character of Kaohsiung's local eateries. Many customers queue early in the morning to secure their favorite dishes, proving the shop's enduring popularity. 4. The Like it Formosa pre-ordered menu (NT$60 per person): one bowl of duck vermicelli.
4	20 mins	Xiangming Tea Shop (香茗茶行)	1. History & origin 2. Architecture & atmosphere 3. Evolution & transformation 4. Signature Products	1. Xiangming Tea Shop is a historic tea business founded in 1946 one of Kaohsiung's oldest tea houses, deeply rooted in the Yancheng District. It has preserved its identity as a "vintage tea house turned modern tea stall." 2. The original shop sits inside the Japanese-era "Ginza Arcade", giving it an architectural charm and nostalgic ambiance. Inside, visitors find wooden window frames, old tea jars, and preserved decor, evoking the warmth of post-war Kaohsiung. Over the decades, Xiangming evolved from delivering loose tea leaves by bicycle to selling ready-to-drink teas and soft serve, creatively showcasing its tea-making heritage. 3. The Like it Formosa pre-ordered menu (NT$70 per person): two kinds of drinks to choose included Oolong Milk

				Tea, Fresh Milk Tea.
5	30 mins	DaGouDing Milkfish Rice-Noodle Soup (大溝頂虱目魚米粉湯)	1. History 2. Signature dishes and features	1. Introduce the origin of the name DaGouDing (大溝頂) meaning “covered ditch” or “top of the big ditch”, is a long-standing breakfast and brunch eatery hidden in a narrow alley of Kaohsiung Yancheng First Public Market, with a history of over 60 years. Milkfish is a symbol of southern Taiwan cuisine, often called the “national fish.” 2. The signature dish of DaGouDing is fish-belly soup (魚肚漿湯) - thick slices of milkfish belly are coated in house-made fish paste and simmered in rich fish broth. Customers can enjoy it with coarse rice noodles (米粉) or in a “soup + rice” combination. Fish belly soup with minced pork rice - minced pork with its sauce poured over rice will be served together in the tour. 3. The Like it Formosa pre-ordered menu (NT$83 per person): one bowl of fish-belly paste soup for two people and one bowl of minced pork rice each person.
6	30 mins	Po Po Ice (高雄婆婆冰)	1. History 2. Founder’s life story 3. Brand symbol & legacy	1. Po Po Ice traces its roots back to the Japanese colonial era and has been serving shaved ice and fruit drinks in Kaohsiung for over 70 years, known as one of the city’s oldest and beloved dessert shops. 2. Mrs. Cai Zhaogu (蔡趙固) - the founder - affectionately called “Po Po” (grandmother) - started her shop after becoming a widow at age 36, raising her children alone. Despite losing eight of her ten children, she persevered and built the ice shop into a steady livelihood for her family. 3. The red hood / kerchief (小紅帽頭巾) worn by the original Po Po has become the brand’s trademark symbol. Po Po suffered from skin disease (leprosy) and could not grow hair, so she always wore a scarf. 4. The Like it Formosa pre-ordered menu (NT$125 per person): three kinds of shaved ice to choose included signature plum, taro with red beans and super fruit combo with ice cream.

--	--	--	--	--